- 8) contains other conditions that do not contradict the principles of the remuneration system defined by Resolution No. 153; and
- 9) determines the amount of information contained in the Report on Remuneration and the amount of information on remuneration that may be disclosed.

2.2. Applicability

The Regulation is binding on the Members of the Supervisory Board and other employees of the Bank who are responsible for the accrual and payment of salaries and other income.

This Regulation is consistent with the Remuneration Policy.

3. Remuneration and compensation of the Members of the Supervisory Board of the Bank

3.1. General provisions

The Members of the Supervisory Board of the Bank are entitled to full payment for work, which means the right to remuneration for work performed, which depends on the qualifications of a Member of the Supervisory Board, complexity, volume and quality of work performed, efforts, in accordance with the provisions established by the employment agreement (contract) with a Member of the Supervisory Board, approved by the decision of the Shareholder of the Bank.

The Bank's Shareholder (by way of approval of the relevant agreements (contracts) with the Members of Supervisory Board) sets the remuneration of the Members of the Supervisory Board, taking into account their functions, the Remuneration Policy of the Bank and the market conditions in order to attract and retain qualified employees.

The Regulation on remuneration of the members of the Supervisory Board is gender neutral. The Bank adheres to the principle of equal pay for male and female workers for equal work or work of equal value.

The Shareholder of the Bank annually approves the Report on Remuneration of the Members of the Supervisory Board of the Bank, which is provided by the Supervisory Board of the Bank and the requirements for which are established by the National Bank of Ukraine and the legislation of Ukraine.

3.2. Basic grounds of the system of remuneration of the Members of the Supervisory Board

The Bank's remuneration system, based on the global guidelines and methods of the Shareholder on local governance in the Bank, provides the effective corporate governance, risk management, as well as takes into account the Bank's strategic objectives and promotes the development of its corporate values.

The monetary remuneration is paid in the national currency of Ukraine – hryvnia and/or foreign currency (as may be provided by the relevant agreement (contract) between the Bank and the relevant Member of the Supervisory Board), by non-cash transfer to current, including using the electronic payment methods, accounts of the Members of the Supervisory Board opened in commercial banks of Ukraine and/or foreign bank.

When paying monetary remuneration, the Bank deducts and pays from the amount of remuneration all necessary taxes, fees, obligatory payments, in accordance with the legislation of Ukraine, which are withheld when paying income to individuals.

A fair and appropriate remuneration must be determined for each Member of the Supervisory Board of the Bank, which must be determined by the Remuneration Policy in detail and transparently.

3.3. Components of monetary remuneration of the Members of the Supervisory Board

The Bank has established a system of monetary remuneration of the Supervisory Board, which provides for a Fixed Payment only.

For certain Members of the Supervisory Board, no Fixed Payment is provided and such Members of the Supervisory Board is performing their functions on the free of charge basis – if such terms and conditions are agreed in the relevant contracts (agreements) between the Bank and the relevant Members of the Supervisory Board.

3.4. The structure of monetary remuneration of the Members of the Supervisory Board

The monetary remuneration of the members of the Supervisory Board consists of the Fixed Payment only - includes accruals for work performed, as the amount of such Fixed Payment is set out in the relevant agreements (contracts) between the Bank and the relevant Members of the Supervisory Board.

3.5. Criteria for determination of the amount and procedure for calculation of the amount of monetary remuneration of the Members of the Supervisory Board, the procedure for assessing the fulfilment of these criteria

The amount of the Fixed Payment, which is the only element of compensation to the Members of the Supervisory Board and reflects the importance of each individual position and function of the respective Member of the Supervisory Board, as mentioned above, is stipulated in the relevant agreements (contracts) with the Members of the Supervisory Board, the terms and conditions of which are approved by the Shareholder.

The Bank pays a Member of the Supervisory Board a fixed basic remuneration (if such remuneration is provided in the relevant contacts (agreements)), which is specified in the contract of the respective Member of the Supervisory Board, and which is calculated in proportion to the time worked by this Member of the Supervisory Board for the reporting period. Unless otherwise is provided in the relevant contracts (agreement), the fixed remuneration of a Member of the Supervisory Board is calculated on the basis of the reporting period, which is defined as a calendar quarter and paid on the quarterly basis.

The key criterion of sufficiency of the Fixed Payment is its compliance with professional experience, defined functional responsibilities of the person and the level of their responsibility.

The Fixed Payment is a reward for such criteria as qualifications, skills and experience that a Member of the Supervisory Board brings to the Bank.

3.6. Dismissal payments

In respect of certain members of the Supervisory Board, the Shareholder may at its discretion establish dismissal payments conditional upon determination of effectiveness of performance, achievement of goals, fulfillment of duties, which payments are not included into agreements (contracts) with the Members of the Supervisory Board.
